

Unconditionally

There's no way I could make You love me
With anything I could do
Good works and intentions are just filthy rags to You

So what could I do to please You
When everything I have is not worthy
It's mysterious to me

But I was dead in sin yet You took me in
You breathed on me now I live again
You gave Your love to me unconditionally

There's no day that has ever went by
You haven't shown Your love to me
Now I worship You with gladness and unashamedly

And if I never done a thing
I know that You would love me just the same
It's not easy to explain

But I was dead in sin yet You took me in
You breathed on me now I live again
You gave Your love to me unconditionally

And if I never done a thing
I know that You would love me just the same
It's not easy to explain

But I was dead in sin yet You took me in
You breathed on me now I live again
You gave Your love to me unconditionally
